

LIST OF COMMUNITY EVENTS:

Water Colour Class:

WHEN: Every Monday.
TIME: 1.30 pm to 3.30 pm
WHERE: Glenthams Village Hall.
COST: £ 2.50

The class is untutored but there are artists who would be able to give you advice on drawing, painting etc. The class is very informal and there are books on how to draw and paint and plenty of enthusiasm. We have a coffee/tea break at 2.30 pm with biscuits and we usually view what everyone else has done. All welcome.

Community Coffee Morning:

WHEN: First Saturday of every month (excluding May due to the coronation of our King Charles 111).
TIME: 10.30 a.m to 12.00 noon.
WHERE: Owmbys Church.
COST: £2.50 which entitles you to a cup of tea or coffee and a biscuit or two!

We have a cake stand, piled with home made cakes, a plant stall with cuttings and larger plants for sale. We have a toddlers corner, with lots of toys and colouring books and pencils for the older ones. There is a book stall for you to browse through and also a raffle to take part in.

Short Mat Bowls:

WHEN: Every Tuesday and Friday Evenings.
TIME: 6.30 to 9.00 p.m.
WHERE: Glenthams Village Hall.
COST: £ 2.50.

Come and have a try in friendly company. Equipment available to borrow . All Men and Women welcome to join us.

Open Churches Weekend.

Saturday 13th and Sunday 14th May.

St. Peter and St. Paul Church in Owmbly are featuring a village time line.

Visitors can start by viewing the village entry in the Domesday Book and then follow the time line, hand drawn on a large map of the village. Trace what has disappeared with the years.

This includes shops, houses and a garage. There will also be a display of tools throughout the ages.

There will be corner to inspect the Sunday School children's imaginative models and drawings of shops etc., which used to be here.

Lastly a browse through the time line of Lincoln Cathedral from its inception to the present day.

An organ recital by a local organist will be held on the Saturday at 11.00 pm.

Light refreshments will be available.
